The “Peace Love Print” Event Is NOT Ours!!

We have been hearing from member firms, and others, that the impression has been given that an event that Printing Industries Association of Arizona (PIAZ) is promoting in Denver this month is being put on by Printing & Imaging Association Mountain States. Not so. It is an Arizona based event being promoted under the name Printing Industries of Colorado – their newly formed sub group.

There is some misinformation floating around and we thought it important to squelch another rumor. PIAMS is in no way connected to the event.

As stated in our masthead, PIAMS is “Locally Focused - Serving Colorado Since 1922”. For information on true Colorado efforts and PIAMS “partners” call Kathy Lauerman or Jennifer Janness at 303.771.1578.
